REDSTONE-HUNTSVILLE CHAPTER ANNUAL PLAN
PROGRAM OF MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES FOR THE OPERATIONAL YEAR
1 JULY 2010 TO 30 JUNE 2011

REDSTONE-HUNTSVILLE CHAPTER GOALS AND OBJECTIVES:

- Maintain Chapter of Excellence and President's Club status, remain competitive for Best Chapter
- Surpass AUSA National's Individual Membership goal of 2,680 members and achieve a goal of 3,000 Members
- Maintain Chapter Corporate Membership goal of 300 Members
- Implement AUSA National's professional and educational objectives through focused Chapter programs
- Develop Chapter programs and activities that benefit our Chapter Members, AUSA and the U.S. Army
- Expand programs/activities supporting DA Civilians, Army National Guard, Army Reserve and Army ROTC/JROTC
- Expand Army Family Programs Activities encompassing Active, Reserve and National Guard Soldiers and Units
- Support Anniston Satellite Chapter, and explore establishment of ROTC AUSA Companies at University of North Alabama and Alabama A&M University
- Explore options to establish Satellite Chapters in Birmingham and Montgomery, Alabama
- Strengthen Huntsville/Madison County community support for the Army and AUSA
- Expand activities supporting Army Recruiting
- Continue to partner with Redstone Arsenal MWR, Still Serving Vets and Veterans Fraternal Coalition to support the Army family.
- Seek opportunities to support USASAC, HQ AMC and other organizations as they relocate to Redstone Arsenal
- Establish a Birthday program for Tut Fann State Veterans Home
- Pursue a program to connect the Chapter with deployed troops and units

PROPOSED ACTIVITIES:

- 1) Monthly Activities:
 - a) Executive Committee* (EXCOM): The EXCOM meets the third Tuesday of each month at 1600 at Orbital Sciences Corporation.
 - b) Executive Board* (EXBOD): The EXBOD meets the Friday following the EXCOM at 0730 at the Heritage Club.

- 2) Membership Activities:
 - a) General Membership Meetings* (3 per year minimum required):
 - b) General Membership Socials
 - c) Annual Meeting Hospitality Suite Events – October 2010
 - d) Annual Meeting Welcome Home at the Heritage Club – November 2010
 - e) Department of the Army Civilian of the Year Dinner –April 2011

- f) Army Birthday Celebration* and Installation of Officers – 14 June 2011
- 3) Membership Recruiting Activities: The Chapter membership booth and recruiting team is deployed at special activities with broad constituent appeal including: Tactical Missiles Conference, Armed Forces Week Celebration Activities, the Space and Missile Defense Conference, Redstone Arsenal Retiree Day and Chapter Membership Retention Educational seminars.
- 4) Chapter Communications:
 - a) Chapter Newsletter: The SALUTE is published quarterly as an insert to Redstone Arsenal's Redstone Rocket and mailed to each Chapter Member; target dates for publication are October, January, April, and July.
 - b) Chapter Website: The Chapter Website, www.ausaredstone.org supplements AUSA National's website to provide information on upcoming events, display photos of past events, and provide a library of past SALUTE Newsletters. Website is updated monthly to ensure events, programs and Corporate Member lists are current and well-publicized.
 - c) Huntsville Times Supplements: The Chapter sponsors special supplements to the Huntsville Times for the Tactical Missiles Conference, Armed Forces Celebration Week and Veterans Day.
 - d) Huntsville Times Partnership for Charity Advertisements: The Chapter is provided a free advertisement in the Huntsville Times quarterly to provide information about the Chapter and membership opportunities.
- 5) Corporate Member Activities:
 - a) Soldiers Breakfast: In Fall and Spring the Chapter provides breakfast for Soldiers and NCOs on Redstone Arsenal at no cost. A guest speaker is featured and new members are recruited.
 - b) Breakfast with the Boss: In Fall and Spring the Chapter provides its Corporate Members an opportunity to meet with selected Team Redstone leaders in a collegial forum.
 - c) Corporate Member Appreciation Reception – Each December the Chapter hosts its Corporate Member representatives at a holiday reception to show our appreciation for all that they do in support of Chapter activities.
- 6) Soldier Recognition Programs/Activities:
 - a) Team Redstone Arsenal Soldier of the Quarter/Year and NCO of the Quarter/Year: A Chapter officer or board member attends each luncheon to present a set of leadership training material, $100 cash award ($200 for SOY/NCOY), a Chapter Coin and a free one-year AUSA membership. In addition, the Soldiers selected for SOY/NCOY receive an engraved AUSA wall plaque.
 - b) Army Reserve & Alabama Army National Guard Soldier and NCO of the Year: A Chapter Officer or Board Member presents a commemorative Plaque, $200.00 cash, a Chapter Coin and a free one-year AUSA membership.
 - c) Sporting Event Buyout Nights: As chapter finances allow, we provide tickets and coordinate transportation for Redstone Arsenal Soldiers to attend local college / professional sporting events (UAH Hockey, Huntsville HAVOC hockey, Huntsville Stars baseball, Alabama Vipers Arena Football, Rocket City United soccer).

- d) Ordnance Munitions and Electronic Maintenance School (OMEMS) Instructor of the Year: A Chapter Officer or Board Member attends the luncheon and presents to the winner selected in three categories (officer, NCO and DA Civilian) a commemorative AUSA plaque, $100.00 cash, a Chapter Coin and a free one-year AUSA membership.
- e) Ordnance Munitions and Electronic Maintenance School (OMEMS) farewell activities will honor the School and its Soldiers as they prepare to depart Redstone Arsenal for their new training home at Ft Lee, VA. Chapter plans to have a formal event on or about 1 October for this purpose.

7) Veterans Recognition Programs/Activities:

- a) Huntsville/Madison County Veterans Memorial Park: The Chapter pledged $15,000 (over three years) to the building fund. The third and final contribution ($5,500.00) will take place this year.
- b) Veterans Day Celebration Activities: The Chapter co-sponsors the Veterans Day Dinner and Madison County Hall of Heroes induction ceremony held on 10 November each year and the Veterans Day Parade held at 1100 on 11 November. Chapter tasks include coordinating ROTC/JROTC marching units and distributing flags along the 2(+)-mile parade route. Chapter supports or co-hosts all other community activities associated with Veterans Day – including a Veterans Day Breakfast preceding the parade.
- c) Memorial Day Observances: The Chapter organizes and co-sponsors a Memorial Day Observance with the North Alabama Veterans Coalition and participates by placing an AUSA Wreath at the Veterans Memorial Observance Ceremonies held in Maple Hill Cemetery (Huntsville) each year. The Chapter also supports requests for speakers from surrounding communities.
- d) Tennessee Valley Honor Flight: The Chapter assists with send-off and welcome home ceremonies for WW II Veterans that Honor Flight transports to Washington, DC to visit WW II and other Memorials. Upon their return to Huntsville, the Chapter organizes the return ceremony and presents a Chapter Blue Star coin to each Veteran. The final Honor Flight originating from Huntsville is scheduled for September 11, 2010.

8) Soldier Family Recognition Programs/Activities:

- a) Army Community Services (ACS) Support: The Chapter provides a monetary contribution of $1,500.00 and assists ACS in evaluating U.S. Space and Rocket Center Space Camp Scholarship application essays. The Chapter also assists ACS whenever called upon for recognition of deployed Soldiers, Units and Families.
- b) Redstone Arsenal MWR's annual Month of the Military Child. The Chapter provides a $500 contribution to MWR to offset expenses in conducting its annual block party and related activities.
- c) Operation Christmas Bear. The Chapter co-sponsors with the Veterans Coalition at the Cahaba Shrine a day of activities and gifts for families of deployed Soldiers. A $1,000 contribution is made to help offset event expenses.
- d) Welcome Home at Huntsville Airport for deployed Soldiers. The Chapter and the Veterans Coalition organize Welcome Home celebrations for units and individual Soldiers returning from deployments.

9) Department of the Army Civilian Program: Chapter hosts the DA Civilian of the Year Award Dinner where recognition is given to DAC winners selected from three categories from nominations from all Team Redstone Commands and Activities. The DA Civilian of the Year Awards Dinner is held in April with the winner going forward for 3d Region (and National) competition.

10) Chapter Support to ROTC and JROTC Programs:

- a) ROTC / JROTC Leadership Awards: AUSA National makes available Leadership Medals and Certificates for JROTC and ROTC cadets and a History Award for ROTC cadets selected by the High School or University cadre. If feasible a Chapter Member presents the award(s) at the unit's ceremony along with a one year membership in AUSA, a Chapter Coin and a cash award (JROTC cadets receive a $25, ROTC cadets receive $50.)
- b) Chapter aggressively recruits and recognizes local ROTC and JROTC Programs representing all branches of Service to participate in the annual Veterans Day Parade in Huntsville and neighboring cities. Each participating program receives a cash donation of $100 to help defray costs associated with their transportation and other costs.
- c) Chapter supports the annual JROTC Drill Competition and Sports Competition Day hosted by the Alabama A&M University ROTC Program.

11) Special Programs / Activities:

- a) Huntsville/Madison County Chamber Armed Forces Celebration Week during May/June: The Chapter co-hosts with the Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce this weeklong series of events. Activities include: a sporting event Military Appreciation Night, a Concert in the Park featuring a military band, US Army Soldier Shows (3 performances), and an AUSA Golf Tournament. The Chapter co-chairs the Armed Forces Week Luncheon in even years (2010) and chairs the Armed Forces Week Salute Gala Dinner in odd numbered years (2011).
- b) Army Birthday/Flag Day/General Membership Meeting/Installation of Chapter Officers Dinner: A key general membership meeting with Soldiers, senior military and civilian personnel, and community civic leaders as attendees. Past chapter presidents are recognized. Installation of new Chapter officers and Board members is conducted on/about 14 June each year. The Chapter also presents its 1SG John Ordway Leadership Awards to winning Active Component, Reserve and National Guard First Sergeants in the Chapter area.
- c) Tactical Missiles Conference: This unique Chapter event is a forum for Industry and Government acquisition and operational leaders to share updates on all tactical missile programs, facilitate better industry response to Army needs and allow the Government to outline technology investment strategies. The Chapter organizes the event with the Program Executive Office for Missiles and Space. 2011 will be our 13th annual conference. The Chapter hosts a golf tournament as part of the Conference as a fundraiser.
- d) AUSA Annual Meeting (Washington, DC): Chapter activities include: the Chapter Hotel, the Chapter Hospitality Suite, participation in Third Region Breakfast, and tables at Eisenhower Luncheon and Marshall Dinner for our guest Soldiers. The Chapter assists in coordination of transportation and accommodations for Team Redstone Soldiers and NCOs who were selected for yearly recognition. The Chapter provides running attire for Team Redstone teams and co-hosts with the Wiregrass Chapter an Alabama HOOAH Tent for the Army Ten Miler.
- e) Education Seminar Series: Chapter sponsors and hosts spring and fall Education Seminar. These are free to the membership, conducted to provide timely and important information on Army programs and activities to our membership. By tradition the spring seminar has featured LTG (Ret) Ted Stroup speaking on the Army Budget.

We're planning to feature CSM (Ret) Leroy Bussell speaking on retirement pay and health benefits for the fall seminar.

- f) Resolutions Development: Develop resolutions that positively impact the U.S. Army, U.S. Army Reserve and National Guard, Redstone Arsenal, the Tennessee Valley Community and AUSA.
- g) Chapter Coin Program: Chapter coins are presented to new members. The Chapter President awards serial-numbered coins to individuals as special recognition. Blue Star Coins are provided to deploying Soldiers' families, Veterans and other special individuals who have continued to serve.
- h) Shepherds Program: Each Chapter Executive Board Member is a shepherd taking watch over a group of Corporate Members maintaining liaison, facilitating membership renewal and updating the data base as required.

12) Major Fundraising Events:

- a) Veterans Day Dinner – November 2010
- b) Tactical Missiles Conference – May 2011
- c) Tennessee Valley Salute to Armed Forces SALUTE Dinner – May/June 2011
- d) Annual Golf Tournaments: Tactical Missiles Conference & Armed Forces Week – May/June 2011
